

whitewaller

Maison Souquet

LONDON
& PARIS
2017

THE PARISTER 9th arrondissement

Whitewaller recommends: Taking a swim in the sunlit indoor pool.

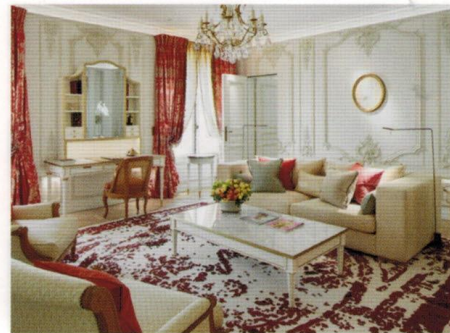

Inspiring and diverse, The Parister is a brand-new hotel. As a result of Nicolas Nonon's wish for a hybrid, lively stay, and the execution by Beckmann N'Thépé studio, guests are greeted by a poetic Parisian-style hotel with 45 rooms and suites.

LE ROCH HOTEL & SPA 1st arrondissement

Whitewaller recommends: Seeing Fred Allard's 40 "bags" created exclusively for the hotel.

Located in a central area full of museums and shopping destinations, Le Roch Hotel & Spa rests on a redefined boutique hotel concept. Dedicated to creating an unforgettable, catered experience through detail, the hotel offers warm and colorful interior design by Sarah Lavoine. With 32 rooms and five suites, the hotel is also equipped with a restaurant by chef Rémy Bérerd, gym, a pool, a steam room, and the CODAGE spa.

LE MEURICE 1st arrondissement

Whitewaller recommends: Staying in the newest suite—The Pompadour Suite.

Regal and classic in design and feel, Le Meurice welcomes visitors to 160 rooms and suites. Lavish brocades, mosaic floors, and an array of restored murals keep the history from the founding in 1835 alive. The hotel also supports young artistic creation through its Meurice Prize for contemporary art.